3 Article 186, M.S.R., requires that the Asstt should have worked during the vacation under the general or special orders issued by competent authority. In Govt Proc. of the 10th Feb 1918 the Addl Sessions Judge was directed to try the Kannapal case but no definite instructions were conveyed that he should remain at his post on duty during the vacation, if needbe. Hence, an order of the sort proposed by the Chief Court seems to be necessary.

4 Ordinarily the Chief Court obtains the sanction of Govt for an Asstt, whom they consider necessary to work during the vacation, being allowed to count the period towards privilege leave or free pass and this before he is actually so employed.

3 In specially deputing Mr Mir Hamza Hussain to try the Kannegal riot case, it was intended that the special work should be continuously pursued but not be interrupted by availment of vacations. He was thus prevented from availing himself of the Summer vacation. He satisfies the conditions of art: 186. M.S.R. and is entitled to pri: leave on full Salary. As an indication of the correct situation, the order proposed may issue.
